ON THE COVER: From a Veterans Administration poster, Veterans' Day, November 11, 1999 depicting the modern military from World War II to the conflict in Iraq. Some of our former units are participating in the current conflict and our thoughts and prayers go with them.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Wa-hoo! What a terrific time in Texas. A great celebration of the contributions and sacrifices our Combat Medics made to the soldiers of the Brigade. A celebration of the 40th anniversary of the formation of the Brigade and a celebration the 20th anniversary of the formation of the 196th LIB Association.

San Antonio registration hit 413 Chargers. It was the largest gathering of Chargers in one place since 1972! D 4/31 had the most troops in attendance, followed closely by the Charlie Tigers of C 3/21 and F Troop, 17th Cav.

I must take a minute to thank all of our members who volunteered their time and talent to make this reunion a success, especially Rich Mosher and Bob Kelly for putting together the pre-reunion AMEDD school tour, the Saturday morning Memorial at the Combat Medic statue on Ft Sam Houston and arranging for our Guest Speaker, Dr. Angel Jimenez. I also want to thank Rich for filling in for me at the Memorial after I became ill during the business meeting. I could never have made the banquet without your help. I also want to thank Ed Dappen for volunteering to man the registration booth with me for the better part of Thursday and Friday.

What a great turnout from our active duty brothers in the 196th Infantry Brigade from Hawaii and throughout the Pacific Rim! We had 13 current Chargers with us at the banquet! Col Jarkowsky and CSM Uncango, Thank You and your soldiers for your support. Hoo-ah!

In other active duty news, 3/21 Inf is now back at Ft Lewis, WA and has been replaced in Mosul, Iraq by 2/1 Inf which is homebased at Ft Wainwright, AK. 4/31 Inf returned to Ft Drum, NY in June after a year in Iraq. 1/46 Inf is a training battalion at Ft. Knox, KY. 3/82nd Arty returned from it's deployment to Iraq last year and is part of the 1st Cav Div at Ft Hood, TX. I have also been notified that the 3rd Sqdrn 4th Cav is going to be reflagged as 6th Sqdrn, 17th Cav and will use F Troop, 17th Cav as it's lineage. 6/17 Cav will be relocating from Hawaii to Alaska in the near future. The legacy continues!

I am currently in touch with most of the commanders and/or CSM's of all these units and with the help of our members, Bob Decker, F Trp, 17th Cav, 66-67, Allen "Doc" Hoe, Recon 2/1, 67-68, Ron Mitchell, A&B 3/21, 68-69, will pass along any SITREP that they provide us.

I also want to let all of our members know that your efforts to include all Chargers, regardless of unit, year or MOS, were successful. The camaraderie displayed this year was the best I've seen so far. This is the first year that I did not receive one comment, letter, email or phone call from one of our brothers who said he felt left out, alienated or disenfranchised at the reunion. We needed each other then and we still need each other now! Thank you all!

Last, but certainly not least, I want to thank the long time officers of the Association for re-upping one more time. The members and I appreciate your support and dedication to the 196th. Without you, we would not have come so far in terms of membership growth and helping folks reconnect.

With that said, I want to alert the membership that some of these positions may need to be filled at the next reunion in July 2007. Over the next few months I'll be putting together job descriptions for the volunteer and elected positions and will publish them in the next newsletter. I want to get a slate together of folks that will represent a good cross section in terms of units and years, with emphasis on the later years (69-72), to inject some fresh, younger blood into the association to take it forward.

A lot of guys are always thanking me for the great job I do as President of this Association and I am humbled by it. It's not a job, it's a privilege and an honor to serve the greatest bunch of guys I have or ever will know.

Warren

Tribute to the Medics

I wanted to read this at the reunion in tribute to the medics and didn't get the chance.

I didn't know what it was about medics. I used to think they joined the Medical Corps because they had a double load of courage, but maybe it was just the title itself that transformed them into the most valiant band of men I ever knew. Medics didn't wait for a miracle to pull the wounded to a safe shelter – they were the miracle that pulled, slid, dragged, and packed shattered bodies out of danger.

And they performed miracles: stopping bleeding, stopping shock, relieving pain with morphine, and getting IV's going to pump life into broken fighters. Many packed M-16's along with their forty-pound medical kits, but their job was to save lives, not take them, and they risked their own, again and again, answering calls that took them right into the line of fire – machine gun, mortar, sniper, mines – without hesitation.

Their most powerful medicine was their encouragement (“You got it made...just a scratch...you'll see that girl again”), a never-ending patter to keep minds occupied while deft hands administered aid or tried to sort out a stomach or chest ripped open by shot.

Grievously wounded soldiers were further assisted by the brave pilots, who performed medevac missions, but it was the medics who made the difference on the ground, until the choppers could get in.

Selfless and serving beyond good sense, countless medics died in the line of duty to save not just their buddies but the life of every man who fell on the battlefield. From two wars, it is these men, the medics – the “docs” – who hold the most special place of respect and trust in my infantryman's heart, and I'm sure there are a couple of million other men in the United States alone who feel the exact same way.

VETERANS' DATA STOLEN

Every veteran should be aware by now that in May 2006, the personal information on 26.5 million veterans and some spouses, was stolen from the home of a Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) employee. The employee had taken the data home and it was stolen along with his computer during a burglary.

As a result of this incident, identifying information including names, social security numbers and dates of birth, as well as some disability ratings was compromised and potentially made available to crooks and scam artists.

Although the VA and the FBI have launched investigations, they are not aware of any misuse of this information yet.

A letter was sent to all veterans informing them of the problem and giving some advice on how to protect yourself from possible identity theft. That advice was essentially to be "extra vigilant", monitor bank statements, credit card statements, and any other financial statements relating to recent transactions. Although they give the impression that recent activity in the May 2006 time frame is most important, it is possible that someone could sit on this data for months, or years, and then use it.

For additional information the VA has teamed with the FTC to set up a website (www.firstgov.gov) with information on this matter, or you may call 1-800-FED-INFO (1-800-333-4636). The call center will operate from 8am to 9 pm (EDT), Monday - Saturday, as long as it is needed.

VERY IMPORTANT-PLEASE READ

Beware of any phone calls, e-mails, and other communications from individuals claiming to be from VA or other official sources, asking for your personal information or verification of it. Do not give credit card numbers, bank account information, or other personal information to anyone unless you called them and know who they are. If you do receive any such calls or e-mails they should be reported to the VA at 1-800-FED-INFO (1-800-333-4636)

FOLLOW THE FOUR STEPS ON THE WEBSITE TO REPORT PROBLEMS

1. Contact the fraud department of one of the three major credit bureaus.
Equifax 800-525-6285, Experian 888-397-3742, TransUnion 800-680-7289
2. Close any accounts that have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.

Brigham, MAJ (Ret) Link, 21 Aug 2005, It is with great sadness that I announce the passing of my father and former Charger, MAJ (Ret) Linc Brigham, Provost Marshal, 196th LIB, 1965-1967, on 21 August 2005 of complications from Alzheimers. He always spoke often of the "wonderful" MPs, the aviation section and other soldiers he came in contact within the brigade. He also spoke of the many frustrations during his service in Vietnam, especially the mission switch of the brigade from the Dominican Republic to Vietnam. However he was always honored at being a part of the 196th LIB and proud to the point of tears of his MPs. MAJ Brigham served in WWII, Korea and Vietnam before retiring to Hollis, NH in 1967. He moved to San Diego in 1978 and retired as a school bus driver for handicapped children. He is survived by his wife Phyllis, 2 sons, 1 daughter and 3 grandchildren. MAJ Brigham was laid to rest in the Tahoma National Cemetery with full military honors.

Lovato, Lt. Colonel Lawrence , USA (Ret'd.) died Saturday, November 12th, 2005 in England, following a stroke earlier this year. A native of Sabinoso, N.M. he joined the army as an underage enlistee and was discharged and returned home after this was discovered. Gaining his father's permission to re-join at age 17, he rose through the ranks quickly becoming one of the U.S. Army's youngest First Sergeants. Commissioned via OCS he was cited for gallantry in combat as a company grade officer with the Military Assistance and Advisory Group (MAAG), Vietnam! and again later as a field grade officer in the 196th Light Infantry Brigade. He retired to his home in England where he was active as a red cross volunteer. A natural linguist and avid reader of history, Colonel Lovato loved the army and served his country faithfully for over thirty years. He is survived by his wife, Jacqueline Patricia Lovato (nee Benson-King) and four children. A brief private funeral service attended by family and friends was held near Cambridge, U.K. where he lived quietly for nearly thirty years.

Sincerely, Dave Lovato JOCM(SW), USN Ret'd.

Rosson, General William Bradford, 12 Dec 2004. In 1967, General Rosson moved from a position as General Westmoreland's Chief of Staff to take command of Task Force Oregon, which included the 196th LIB. Task Force Oregon was a provisional division for operations in the I Corps Tactical Zone, which later became the Americal Division. He went on to serve as Commanding General, I Field Force, Deputy Commander for General Creighton Abrams, Deputy Commander US MACV, Commanding General US Army Pacific, and retired July 1975 as Commander in Chief US Southern Command Panama.

I am so glad he was able to attend the reunion in San Antonio before he was hospitalized. He was ill then, but did not know it. After 120 days in the hospital and a valiant fight, he went home to be with the Lord.” Those of us who served under him will always be glad that we were reunited with Frank through the 196th reunions.

I would like to contact the medic I assisted during, or after, a mortar attack on the Chu Lai Airbase, April 12, 1967.

LOST JACKET-FOUND

This letter is from Brett, who operates a website called www. VietnamGear.com.

In my collection I have an Army jungle jacket with a 196th pocket patch and an Americal shoulder patch. The name on the jacket is Phillips, he was a Lt. with the artillery. Could you please tell me if he is a member of your Association and if so if you have a contact for him? I have several jackets and wondered what has happened to the original owners.

I was assigned to Task Force Gimlet by the end of my tour.

Any information is greatly needed as I am trying to get my comp for PTSD. All my records cannot be found anywhere.

ROBERT WHITE, 38 GUYS ARE LOOKING FOR YOU

Out of sheer desperation, I'm writing you to solicit any help you might be able to give us in our search for a Nam vet that we believe was transferred to the 196th in the Spring of '67 from our unit in the 4th Inf Div based at Dau Tieng.

Our information indicates he may have been assigned to your 4/9th or 3/21 Bn., maybe a 4 duce or 81 mm platoon, as that was his MOS. Bob shipped over to Nam with our whole platoon on the USNS Walker in September '66 and was transferred along with 3, maybe 4 others from our outfit, and we've run into a complete dead-end as to where to look for him. He is one of only two guys out of our original 40 man platoon that we haven't located.

SCHOOL FRIEND

The purpose of this email is to inquire about the circumstances surrounding a friend of mine (we went through a lot of years of school together) who was KIA 10 January 1968.

His name is/was Ed Brown. He was a Sgt and I believe at one time he may have been a radio operator. He was part of Delta Company, 3rd Battalion, 21st Inf.

After 38+ years, I am still haunted by the conversation we had before I left Beloit (hometown) to return to duty, and my admonition to take care of his bride of only a few months and not get caught up with the prospect of being drafted, as school mates of his and mine were regularly receiving notices. His young widow visited my then wife and I not too long after his death. The conversation haunted me then, and it does to this day. I had a chance to spend a few minutes to talk to her a number of years ago when I was back in WI, although I didn't get a chance to talk to their daughter.

Sometimes when my fiancé and I (she also went to school with Ed) talk about people from HS and the wretched hometown, it burns a little stronger.

We all have our haunts, but most are military in nature and can be beaten back. I take this one personally as it won't go away for very long at all.

If anyone who served in Delta Co with Ed can provide info I'd appreciate it. Maybe then I can get some of this to go away. I'd appreciate it a great deal for any information.

A-3/21 MEMORIES

I came over to the 196th from the 4th division sometime in July 1967. I sometimes get the two units mixed up when I try to put my thoughts together.

I do know I drank a lot and got into a lot of trouble in Saigon on R&R, which now I'm not very proud of.

I was put into A 3/21, I believe 1st sq.

I remember my first day there, someone was showing a claymore mine to some buddies and it went off killing a few guys. I didn't come back to the States with my friends of A 3/21. They were still debating what to do with me when everybody left the great land of Vietnam.

Can you put this in the newsletter to see if anyone remembers me and gives me a response?

I would really like to clear up some memories, good or bad.

3/21 MEDAL ELIGIBILITY

Some information for you. I may have been the only one that did not know this but just in case.

Some months back I requested the Army to correct my records due to some awards I had received that did not show on my DD214 and etc. Even though it took them a long time they did a great job of correcting them and sent me the medals. The interesting thing is that the letter I received include the following.

"A further examination of your records indicates that, in accordance with the Department of the Army Pamphlet 672-3, Unit Citation and Campaign Credit Register, your unit in Vietnam, the 3rd Battalion, 21st Infantry was awarded the "Navy Unit Commendation" for service from 1 May through 16 May 1968."

The Army cannot issue the medal, however I am requesting it from the Navy.

Thought this was great. Take care of yourselves.

The 2005 meeting of the 196th Light Infantry Brigade Association was called to order by President Warren Neill at 9:07 A.M. on Saturday, July 30, 2005. The meeting was held in a conference room of the Airport Hilton, San Antonio, TX.

Douglas Moses sang a Scottish Ballad, The Fields of Glory, in memory of K.I.A. in Vietnam

Ken also requested that members be diligent about sending in address changes to keep the database up-to-date. Right now, many newsletters are returned due to incorrect mailing addresses, which increases costs to the Association.

Roy Dolgos made a motion to retain all current officers for the next two years. Motion carried. Current officers consented to remain in office.

Operation Smile is a nonprofit program providing surgical repair of cleft palates for children in the Republic of Vietnam. Doug Moses made a motion that a donation of $196.00 be sent to help support this project both in 2005 and in 2006. Motion was approved. Warren Neill will co-ordinate this gift and send it out each year. If anyone wishes to make personal donations, please send their donations to Warren and he will send it out with the checks from the 196th.

MEMORIAL DAY TRIBUTE

The following remarks were delivered by Allen K. Hoe, Esq. 196th Light Infantry Brigade-Vietnam, on Memorial Day 2005 at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, in honor of his son who was killed in action on January 22, 2005 in Mosul, Iraq.

Aloha:

Mr. Secretary, Mr. Scruggs, fellow veterans; my ancestors are honored by my invitation to be here today.

Jan, thank you again for your timely visit to Hawaii in 1991. Your presence made a difference in establishing Hawaii's Vietnam Veterans Memorial, now a prominent part of our State Capitol.

A quote from it reads:

Aia ho'i lakou mau

Inoa I mahalo 'ia

ko Hawai'i Mohai aloha

Pau ole

"America's greatest sacrifice is before us in their names."

On a day much like today 15 years ago, a 12 yr. old boy stood on these hallowed grounds. He touched the names of 1Lt. Fred Ransbottom, William "Skip" Skivington, and a dozen others, on Panels 47, 55, 58, & 59. They were the men from Long Range Recon Platoon, 2nd Battalion 1st Infantry Regiment, 196th Light Infantry Brigade. He knew the story of how they came to be on this sacred wall.

Mother's Day, 1968 at a remote Special Forces Camp called Kham Duc.

They were the men of Recon team "Snoopy" and this was our battle flag.

Something stirred in his soul that day connecting him to this legacy; at that moment he knew what he would do with his life.

He dedicated himself to being the very best; he earned top honors in high school JROTC at Kamehameha. A Business Degree with honors at the University of Hawaii.

The path to his commission began from the enlisted ranks. Basic training at Ft. Jackson; as the soldier of the cycle. Ft. Gordon for AIT; as the Class honor graduate. Then service with the United States Forces Korea. Selected as its Soldier of the Year and the 9th RSC Soldier of the Year, the United States Army Pacific Reserve Soldier of the Year, and the runner-up for the United States Army Reserve Soldier of the Year for 2001.

"Dad, you're enlisted." "I need to succeed as an enlisted soldier before I can lead as an Officer." With a pure heart like that, the stars would surely guide him in his future army endeavors.

He returned to the University of Hawaii for an MBA degree on an academic scholarship. He was a platoon leader with the 100th Battalion

442nd Inf., of "Go For Broke" fame, now serving in Iraq, and he led University of Hawaii's Army ROTC Cadet Corps as its Command Sergeant Major, Battalion S3 and Battalion Commander.

He earned a SCUBA badge from the U.S. Navy Dive School at Pearl Harbor and he was the 4th ranking ROTC graduate in the nation, when he received his Gold Bars on May 17, 2003;

Then IOBC at Ft. Benning with Jump School and Ranger School in a whirlwind of time and place.

He knew he was to be a soldier, his ancestors had been warriors for 200 years; they came to his beloved Hawaii from the four corners of the globe, Massachusetts, Scotland, England, Germany, China, Japan and the Azores. His U.S. Army heritage descends from his great grandfathers, a grandfather and his father's service with Team Snoopy of Recon 2/1.

It was cool, that grandma in 1942 at age 17 served with the Army Signal Corps in the Women's Air Raid Defense command and grandpa's sister earned her "gold bars" as a member of the first group of women officers in the WACs.

Hawaii women serving their country is a proud family legacy continuing with cousin Army Captain Courtney Blake Sugai, who served with the 101st ABN Division in Afghanistan and Iraq; Courtney and husband, Army Captain Iven Sugai, join us today, thank you for your service Courtney and Iven;

Count me among the thousands of veterans who are proud of our service in Vietnam. However a greater pride is our children's gift to the world. They are brave these young men and women who sacrifice daily for the cause of freedom.

America's daughters set new benchmarks daily with their service. Heroes like Army Blackhawk pilot, Major Tammy Duckworth, a University of Hawaii graduate, shows us what personal courage is really all about. They, like the legions of women we honor have not only worn the uniform, they have also birthed a generation of our finest soldiers and have also borne the heavy price of freedom whose roots run deep upon these hallowed grounds.

13 months ago, Nainoa called, "Dad, I got a platoon in Charlie Tigers of the Gimlets." He knew their history; the 3rd Bn. 21st Inf., 196th Light Infantry Brigade, Vietnam. To be part of dad's legacy, to serve with a unit which served with Recon 2/1 in Vietnam, was all he hoped for.

How do these things happen, is it karma, luck, good fortune, or simply fate.

Here, we remember the 339 "Gimlets" who gave their last full measure on the battlefields of Vietnam. I am comforted in the belief that they have welcomed my son to their heavenly ranks. Nainoa joins with them as our guardian angels, vigilant always in the cause of freedom and liberty.

When Nainoa and I stood here, how could we ever imagine that he also would be bound to this place?

Panel 54 honors American Hero, 1Lt. Edward F. Guthrie, of Idabel, Oklahoma, who died on May 2, 1968 while leading the 2nd Platoon, C Co. 3/21 Inf., "Charlie Tigers" in the Battle for "Nhi Ha Village near the DMZ." His CO, "Tiger 6", Denny Leach, ret'd. Brigadier General, recalls, "Ed never asked his troops to suffer any hardship that he himself would not endure. He was always up front and had his face in the mud just like his shooters. He led by example and was incredibly brave. He never beat his chest and there was no bravado on his part. He was a proud warrior, but was very humble and always gave his troops the honors for the platoon's heroics. I could not have asked for a better platoon leader."

1Lt. Guthrie was the only officer killed from "Charlie Tigers" while the Battalion served with the 196th Light Infantry Brigade in Vietnam between 1966 and 1972.

On January 22, 2005, a single American Hero died in the war on terrorism. It was my precious son, 1Lt. Nainoa Keali'i hokuhelelani Hoe. Like 1Lt. Guthrie, he too was killed while leading the warriors, of 2nd Platoon, Charlie Tigers, on a patrol in northern Iraq in the battle for the city of Mosul.

Is it fate after 37 years that the Platoon Leaders of 2nd Platoon Charlie Tigers, are now linked together because of their commitment to duty honor country and the desire to make a difference in the lives of others.

The current "Tiger 6", CPT Robert Born, shared the following. "2nd Platoon Charley Tigers were the most cohesive infantry platoon that I had seen in 8 years. Often referred to as 2nd Ranger Platoon for the amount of platoon leadership who served with 2nd Ranger Battalion and the number of Ranger SOPs and TTPs. The Charley Tigers "Out-laws" were strongly led and even stronger willed." "Nainoa took charge and never looked back. He was the perfect man for the job and he was a natural fit. He earned their respect and the trust of his men, his peers, and superiors. Everyone saw the same man. If you asked a private to describe Nainoa you would get the same description as the Battalion Commander."

The other Platoon leaders of Charlie Tigers reflected upon him as "fiercely competitive, but he never micromanaged his soldiers, he trusted and empowered his NCO's and allowed his men to succeed and fail on their own merits. He never accepted credit for his men's accomplishments, and never deflected the blame for any deficiencies his platoon encountered. His men were the most important thing to him. This was true in both training and combat. Nainoa led from the front in Mosul, no matter the mission, he would be in the first vehicle leading his men or right up front with the lead element in a dismounted patrol. He never asked his men to do anything he would never do first himself. He was not out seeking glory or spotlighting he was just doing what he knew was right, leading from the front."

Is it also fate that 37 years ago in the sky above Kham Duc, a young air force pilot with the call sign Helix, would be on station directing covering air strikes while the men of Recon Team Snoopy tried desperately to escape the NVA which had over run their positions.

Is it fate that the Helix pilot, James Gibler's son LTC Mike Gibler would become Gimlet 6, Nainoa's Battalion Commander.

Is it fate that this sacred battle flag which protected me through the grim days of 1967 & 1968 in Vietnam, would be carried by my son and his platoon the day he was killed in Iraq. "Dad I want to carry your Recon flag to honor the men who served with you in Vietnam."

Is it fate?, whatever it is, the bonds that bind the brotherhood of the American soldier like a father and son, is a special one.

To Steve Fainaru, Washington Post writer, mahalo for your incredible tribute to my son. "On Campaign Trail ~ A Single Shot."

To the Outlaws of 2nd Platoon Charlie Tigers, you are my heroes, SFC. Corey Meyers, SSG. Victor Birdseye, SSG. Steve Siglock, SSG. Evans, SSG. Hank Moreno, Doc Mauney, Phil Fassieux and Darren Glenn; to Pfc. Jerome Roettgers, Pfc. Robert Layton and Pfc. Darrin Gooding your heroic efforts in holding your ground against the fusillade of bullets to save Nainoa, was above and beyond, my family will hold each of you in our hearts forever.

A very special tribute to Blackhawk pilot, 1Lt Jeremy Wolf, a fellow ROTC cadet who preceded Nainoa as the Battalion Commander for the University of Hawaii. Is it also fate that Jeremy also preceded Nainoa in death when he was killed in Iraq in November, 2003.

I now have a better appreciation of Churchill's quote, "never was so much owed by so many to so few". A grateful nation thanks each of you, Gimlets, 3/21 Infantry and all of the brave men and women in uniform who risk it all to share our country's legacy of freedom and liberty each day.

*"Grieve not for lost youth,
Carved in memory and stone
We dwell in your dreams."*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LOCATOR SERVICE

The 196th LIB Association will search its database, on request, to attempt to locate buddies you may want to find. Simply send a written or e-mail request to Ken McKenzie, Editor, stating the name if you know it. We can also do a search by unit and year. State the Company, Battalion, and year(s) to search. We will send you a print-out of up to ten names returned by the search. If the search returns more than ten names, we will just send you the names without addresses. Look over the list to see if you want to get in touch with anyone, and we will send you those addresses.

The purpose of not sending long lists of names and addresses is to protect the mailing list from possible commercial exploitation. We have spent a lot of time and effort building our member database and do not want it used indiscriminately.

We currently have over 4,000 names on our mailing list so maybe we can help you find that long lost buddy.

You can also leave a message on the 196th Website Guestbook at: www.196th.org to search for friends or information. Make sure you leave contact information such as an e-mail address, home address, or phone number. When leaving an e-mail address, use "at" instead of the @ sign to prevent spammers from getting your e-mail address. Spam is becoming more and more of a problem and will continue to grow until it is outlawed. Write your Congressional representative to outlaw SPAM.

EDITOR'S NOTE

You may be wondering why the newsletter has not been put out for quite some time. The last newsletter was just prior to the San Antonio reunion. About a month after the reunion I lost my brother, and my wife and I have had to help my sister-in-law out of some difficult times for all of us. Although I have retired, I also have a year long commitment with GM at their new plant in Lansing, MI that requires me to travel there two weeks a month. So.. That's why I've been unable to get this newsletter out sooner. No excuses... like they say, you should never volunteer for anything. I hope I can continue to publish the newsletter on time in the future.
